

I was under the impression that network stations were required to give equal time to candidates. I'd be fine with the airing of this show if the same amount of time were given to a pro-Kerry or anti-Bush film, such as "Up the River" or "Fahrenheit 911."

That Sinclair is not doing so shows how bad media consolidation is for truth in broadcasting.